NEU Teacher Strike action on Wednesday 1st February 2023- UPDATE

Monday, 30th January 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

A reminder that on Wednesday, ALL year 5 and year 6 children are expected into school.

All starfish children booked in for a Wednesday session should attend as usual.

If you are one of the 23 parents who responded to the online form to inform us that you are a key worker- you have all been successful in gaining a place on Wednesday and should send your child into school.

All children who are in one of the following groups should attend on Wednesday as usual-

Children with an EHCP (Education Health Care plan) for SEND (Special Educational Needs/ Disabilities)

Children with any children's services or social work involvement- including those children with an SGO (Special Guardianship order).

If your child meets any of the above criteria, they should be in school as usual and any non- attendance for children in these groups will be recorded as unauthorised absence.

Any children NOT in the above groups or do not qualify for a school place under the priority worker (key worker) scheme, should NOT attend school and this will be recorded as an authorised absence.

If you are unsure which group your child falls into, then please contact the school office as a priority. Please do not leave it until Wednesday morning.

The survey will remain open until 5pm tomorrow if you are a keyworker and you have not yet registered your child.

Any questions, please do ask.

We thank you for your continuing support.

Best Wishes,

Miss Martin
